

David Hockney has returned to L.A. with his iPad in tow

Page 22

Jackie Beat has a few tough questions for Alexis Arquette

Page 22

I-READY

made for summer
vel

o splurge on a new summer wardrobe centuate your back-breaking squats our pecs on display and tell the world r, look no further than Tim-Scapes, a summer on the idyllic tip of Cape Cod, shop owner Tim Convery gives it a shot: Plymouth. I had a tourist once ask me out on a drag show in 1621.' There is a ther places. It's like gay summer camp." creativity is present in Convery's latest a popular LGBT destination in his now y says.

ast destination tanks available for pur-n, snatch up your favorite homocentric Provincetown) while you can. —S.H.

WHETHER OR NOT YOU'VE TAKEN THE PLUNGE and decided to begin a family, it's time to start thinking about heirlooms. What better item for the fruit of your loins than the manliest of grooming products? The Bison + Max Sprecher Signature Straight Razor ($895, bisonmade.com) is a sturdy piece of equipment, comfortable to hold and constructed of high-density carbon fiber, which ensures you've always got a smooth blade grazing your cheek. Purchase Bison's paddle strop case—made of cocobolo hardwood, calfskin leather and solid brass (an added $249)—to keep your investment safe, because let's be honest, at such a hefty price, it is an investment. —S.H.